National Service Scheme

The National Service Scheme serves as a vital avenue for academic institutions to contribute to societal welfare. It provides a platform for students to showcase their abilities, deepen their understanding, and integrate knowledge with practical action to foster community development. Our BCAS NSS is dedicated to equipping volunteers with the skills necessary for a democratic, self-disciplined, and self-sufficient lifestyle. A fundamental aspect of any organization's success is the familiarity of its members with its operations. The NSS executive committee, led by the Principal, along with the NSS Programme Officers, oversees the activities of 300 NSS volunteers across three units.

The primary goals of the National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers are:

- Comprehend the dynamics of the community in which they operate.
- Reflect on their personal identity in relation to the community context.
- Recognize the community's needs and challenges, engaging members in collaborative problem-solving efforts.
- Foster a collective sense of social and civic duty among peers.

- Apply their expertise to devise effective solutions for both individual and communal issues.

Internal Complaint Committee

The Internal Complaint Committee (ICC) at Bharathidasan College of Arts and Science has been established in accordance with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act of 2013, as well as the Ministry of Human Resource Development notification dated May 2, 2016, which pertains to the University Grants Commission (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal of Sexual Harassment of Women Employees and Students in Higher Educational Institutions) Regulations 2015 and the Grievances in Technical Institutions Regulations of 2016. The acknowledgment of this committee is of significant importance.

Our Institution has established an Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) in accordance with the Sexual Harassment Act. The primary objective of the Sexual Harassment Policy is to address the challenges faced by students and employees through an accessible internal relief system, thereby offering an effective remedy to the complainant in a timely manner. This approach ensures that the individual can continue their studies and personal development without further obstacles. It is crucial to acknowledge this Committee. Regarding the resolution of cases, it is important to note that redress does not always have to be disciplinary; it can also be educational. This is facilitated by open discussions in forums attended by both faculty and students, where female students are encouraged to express their concerns freely in class and other settings.

In accordance with the University Grants Commission (UGC) Regulation Act of 2015 and 2016, Bharathidasan College of Arts and Science, Erode has established the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) comprising the following members to address matters related to gender-based violence and to implement gender sensitization programs.

Any faculty member, staff, or student who has a grievance, including instances of harassment, may bring the matter to the attention of the Presiding Officer or any Committee Member for appropriate action and resolution.

The committee is dedicated to development of a strong environment that encourages diversity and honors all individuals, irrespective of their color, religious beliefs, or cultural backgrounds. In addition to upholding various forms of diversity, it is also committed to safeguarding the rights of all individuals, including minorities, and adhering to the provisions outlined in the Constitution of India regarding these issues.

Anti-Ragging Cell

Anti-Ragging Committee is constituted in the beginning of every academic year as per Guideline of Government with faculty members and Students. Principal will be chairing the Committee. It looks after any unwanted activities happening among students and takes necessary action to keep College Safe and Secure for all the students. To ensure the fearless complaints are made by the students when they any face inconvenience in the campus, Locked Ragging Complaint Box is placed in College premises. Box has information of Phone numbers nearby Police station, Principal and University Number. Periodically the Box is checked by the Committee and necessary actions will be taken if complaint arises.

Alumni

Our College has a registered Alumni Association; Alumni Registration No. SRG/Erode/89/2020, Date: 04/03/2020. The Association arranges a regular meet and interacts with the management. It is the banner holder of the developments in our institution. The Alumni Association organizes a special lecture every year. Interactive sessions are arranged periodically between the students and Alumni to gain first-hand information and motivation regarding social adjustments and career opportunities. Our institution takes a legitimate pride on the glory and achievements of the past students.

The Alumni association and the institution have an overwhelming mutual trust on each other. Our Alumni Association provides a crossing point for establishing a tie amid the alumni, faculty members and students of the institute.

The alumni also assist the institution by influencing industry and other agencies in organizing placement fests for the organization. Our alumni has stretched out and strengthened it with new admissions also alumni are currently working in various positions and proving their courage in all spheres of management.

Alumni Interaction

Alumni are invited as resource persons for various events such as guest lectures and panel discussions. They provide inputs and share their experiences regarding skills, recent technologies & trends in the corporate world, application of data and company working culture.

Placement & Career Guidance Assistance

Alumni are working in various organizations in various capacities. They update the faculties and the placement representative about the available job opportunities. Alumni help the students to attain the success in the interviews. Experiences shared by them with the students motivate the students to set a goal for a successful career in their life.

Alumni Meet

Alumni have a tradition of inviting alumni for the Annual Alumni Meet on the second of May every year. In this meet the alumni get a chance to reconnect with the college and old friends. This is the most effective platform for networking and sharing new trends and current happenings within the company world. These inputs are helpful to academicians for molding the aspiring students.
